Group Sightseeing program

Group will leave Islamabad at 10 AM on 30th October and after a drive of around two and half hour will arrive at Ayubia, a beautiful Hill station. The Group will do trekking of Four Km on a beautiful scenic hill track which is safe, smooth and equally good to traverse for 5 to 85 years of age.

A picnic lunch will be served at the end of trekking. The group will now travel for around one and a half hour by Cars/ minibuses and will check in at the five star picnic resort (PC Bhurban) for night stay.

A Gala dinner with bonfire and Bar BQ will be arranged in open sky for that night.

Next day, the delegates will enjoy a traditional buffet breakfast of PC Bhurban and then move for a short visit of the Murree Mall Road.

Delegates will reach Aghosh College Murree at Zohar time. They will offer Zohar prayer in the beautiful masjid of Aghosh College. A lunch reception is organized in student's mess of college in honor of delegates by the President of Alkhidmat Foundation.

The Delegates will then spend a couple of hours in different activities with shining stars of the college. All these students are orphans and are selected from different parts of country after tough competition for class six.

After Maghrib prayers, the delegates will leave for Islamabad.

Those having return flights will be taken to the Airport.
